

* Photography Class *

Trinity United Methodist Church

607 Airport Road
Huntsville, Alabama 35802

is hosting photographer Robert Schuffert for a one night photography class

Wednesday, October 12, 2011

at the church, Room 250, 6:30—8:30 pm.

Questions? Contact Robert Schuffert (256) 881-1354

www.SchuffertStudios.com

The $25 enrollment fee includes a copy of Robert's booklet, Photography Highlights & Tips, a handy reference of photography facts and tips. The class will cover the major aspects of photography, and is suitable for beginners and amateurs; he will cover subjects of interest for photographers of most levels. The class will cover digital and film photography, lenses and accessories, composition, exposure, landscapes and close-ups, how to use those basic camera controls, and will include many landscape photography tips to use daily.

Register at www.SchuffertStudios.com under Classes, e-mail to Robert@SchuffertStudios.com, call (256) 881-1354, or sign up at the door.

Robert Schuffert's photographs have been selected for magazine articles and covers, calendars and publications. His photograph "Golden Gate Blues" won 1st Place in the Decatur Daily newspaper's 2002 photography contest with over 1,200 other entries. Robert's photograph "Foggy Cove" in 2006 took 1st Place in the black and white category at the Gadsden Museum of Art. Robert was also invited by the Alabama Bureau of Tourism and Travel to display several of his photographs in their "2006, The Year of Outdoor Alabama" photography exhibit which recently toured the state. Robert is the author of the popular travel guide, "Scenic North Alabama" and he is a Best Selling Regional Author at Books-A-Million. Robert's newest travel guide, "Scenic Tennessee", is available at several locations across north Alabama and Tennessee. Robert is a member of the Huntsville Photographic Society www.HuntsvillePhotographicSociety.org.